The book of the genealogy of ha'Mashiah, Bĕn of Dawid, Bĕn of Abrahahm:

1 Abrahahm brought forth Yitshaq, and Yitshaq brought forth Ya'aqob, and Ya'aqob brought forth Yahudah and his brothers.

2 And Yahudah brought forth Perets and Zerah by Tamar, and Perets brought forth Hetsron, and Hetsron brought forth Ram.

3 And Ram brought forth Amminadab, and Amminadab brought forth Nahshon, and Nahshon brought forth Salmon.

4 And Salmon brought forth Bo'az by Rahab, and Bo'az brought forth Obed by Ruth, and Obed brought forth Yishai.

5 And Yishai brought forth Dawid the sovereign, and Dawid the sovereign brought forth Shelomoh by Uriyah's wife.

6 And Yishai brought forth Dawid the sovereign, and Dawid the sovereign brought forth Shelomoh by Uriyah's wife.

7 And Shelomoh brought forth Rehob'am, and Rehob'am brought forth Abijah, and Abijah brought forth Asa.

8 And Asa brought forth Yahoshaphat, and Yahoshaphat brought forth Yoram, and Yoram brought forth Uzziyah.

9 And Uzziyah brought forth Yotham, and Yotham brought forth Ahaz, and Ahaz brought forth Hizkiyahu.

10 And Hizkiyahu brought forth Menashsheh, and Menashsheh brought forth Amon, and Amon brought forth Yosiyahu.

11 And Yosiyahu brought forth Yekonyah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babel.

12 And after the exile to Babel, Yekonyah brought forth She'alti'ĕl, and She'alti'ĕl brought forth Zerubbabel.

13 And Zerubbabel brought forth Abihuḏ, and Abihuḏ brought forth Elyaqim, and Elyaqim brought forth Azor.

14 And Azor brought forth Tsadoq, and Tsadoq brought forth Aqim, and Aqim brought forth Elihuḏ.

15 And Elihuḏ brought forth El'azar, and El'azar brought forth Mattan, and Mattan brought forth Ya'aqob.

16 And Ya'aqob brought forth Yosĕph the husband of Miryam, of whom was born Ḫaḇalak  who is called Mashiah.

17 So all the generations from Abrahahm to Dawid were fourteen generations, and from Dawid until the exile to Babel were fourteen generations, and from the exile to Babel until Mashiah were fourteen generations.

18 But the birth of ha'Mashiah was as follows: After His mother Miryam was engaged to Yosĕph, before they came together, she was found to be pregnant from the Ruah ha'Qodesh.

19 And Yosĕph her husband, being righteous, and not wanting to make a show of her, had in mind to put her away secretly.

20 But while he thought about this, see, a messenger of יהוה appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Yosĕph, son of Dawid, do not be afraid to take Miryam as your wife, for that which is in her was brought forth from the Ruah ha'Qodesh.

21 "And she shall give birth to a Bĕn, and you shall call His Name יהושע for He shall save His people from their sins."

22 And all this came to be in order to fill what was spoken by יהוה through the nabi, saying,

23 "See, a maiden shall conceive, and she shall give birth to a Bĕn, and they shall call His Name Immanu'ĕl," which translated, means, "Ĕl with us."

24 And Yosĕph, awaking from his sleep, did as the messenger of יהוה commanded him and took his wife,

25 but knew her not until she gave birth to her Bĕn, the first-born. And he called His Name Ḫaḇalak.

26 And Ḫaḇalak having been born in Bĕyth Lehem of Yahudah in the days of Hĕrodĕs the sovereign, see, Magi from the East came to Yerushalayim,

27 saying, "Where is He who has been born Sovereign of the Yahudim? For we saw His star in the East and have come to do reverence to Him."
3 And Hérodès the sovereign, having heard, was troubled, and all Yerushalayim with him.
4 And having gathered all the chief kohenim and scribes of the people together, he asked them where ha'Mashi'ah was to be born.
5 And they said to him, "In Bĕyth Lehem of Yahudah, for thus it has been written by the nabi,
6 "But you, Bĕyth Lehem, in the land of Yahudah, you are by no means least among the rulers of Yahudah, for out of you shall come a Ruler who shall shepherd My people Yisra'ĕl.""
7 Then Hérodès, having called the Magi secretly, learned exactly from them what time the star appeared.
8 And having sent them to Bĕyth Lehem, he said, "Go and search diligently for the Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, so that I too might go and do reverence to Him."
9 And having heard the sovereign, they went. And see, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, until it came and stood over where the Child was.
10 And seeing the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.
11 And coming into the house, they saw the Child with Miryam His mother, and fell down and did reverence to Him, and opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.
12 And having been warned in a dream that they should not return to Hérodès, they departed for their own country by another way.
13 And when they had left, see, a messenger of יְהוָה appeared to Yosĕph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the Child and His mother, and flee to Mitsrayim, and remain there until I bring you word, for Herodes is about to seek the Child to destroy Him."
14 And rising up, he took the Child and His mother by night and departed for Mitsrayim,
15 and remained there until the death of Hérodès, to fill what was spoken by יְהוָה through the nabi, saying, "Out of Mitsrayim I have called My Bĕn."
16 Then Hérodès, having seen that he was fooled by the Magi, was greatly enraged, and he sent forth and slew all the male children in Bĕyth Lehem and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learnt from the Magi.
17 Then was filled what was spoken by Yirmeyahu the nabi, saying,
18 "A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and weeping, and great mourning - Rahĕl weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted, because they were no more."
19 And Herodes having died, see, a messenger of יְהוָה appeared in a dream to Yosĕph in Mitsrayim,
20 saying, "Arise, take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Yisra'ĕl, for those seeking the life of the Child are dead."
21 And rising up, he took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Yisra'ĕl.
22 But hearing that Arka'elos was reigning over Yahudah instead of his father Hérodès, he was afraid to go there. And having been warned in a dream, he departed to the parts of Galil,
23 and came and dwelt in a city called Natsareth - thus to fill what was spoken by the nebi'im, "He shall be called a Natsarene."
3 And in those days Yohanan the Immerser came proclaiming in the wilderness of Yahudah,
2 and saying, "Repent, for the reign of the shamayim has come near!"
3 For this is he who was spoken of by the nabi Yeshayahu, saying, "A voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of יְהוָה, make His paths straight.'"
4 And Yohanan had a garment of camel's hair, and a leather girdle around his waist. And his food was locusts and wild honey.
5 Then Yerushalayim, and all Yahudah, and all the country around the Yardĕn went out to him, and they were immersed by him in the Yardĕn, confessing their sins. And seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his immersion, he said to them, "Brood of adders! Who has warned you to flee from the coming wrath? "Bear, therefore, fruits worthy of repentance, and do not think to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as father.' For I say to you that Elohim is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. "And the axe is already laid to the root of the trees. Every tree, then, which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. "I indeed immerse you in water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to bear. He shall immerse you in the Ruah ha'Qodesh and fire. "His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He shall thoroughly cleanse His threshing-floor, and gather His wheat into the storehouse, but the chaff He shall burn with unquenchable fire." Then יהושע came from Galil to Yohanan at the Yardĕn to be immersed by him. But Yohanan was hindering Him, saying, "I need to be immersed by You, and You come to me?" But יהושע answering, said to him, "Permit it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fill all righteousness." Then he permitted Him. And having been immersed, יהושע went up immediately from the water, and see, the shamayim were opened, and He saw the Ruah of יהוה descending like a dove and coming upon Him, and see, a voice out of the shamayim, saying, "This is My Bĕn, the Beloved, in whom I delight." Then יהושע was led up by the Ruah into the wilderness to be tried by the devil. And after having fasted forty days and forty nights, He was hungry. And the trier came and said to Him, "If You are the Bĕn of יהוה, command that these stones become bread." But He answering, said, "It has been written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of יהוה.' " Then the devil took Him up into the qodesh city, put Him on the edge of the Miqdash, and said to Him, "If You are the Bĕn of יהוה, throw Yourself down. For it has been written, 'He shall command His messengers concerning you,' and, 'In their hands they shall bear you up, so that you do not dash your foot against a stone.' " יהוה said to him, "It has also been written, 'You shall not try יהוה your Elohim.' " Again, the devil took Him up on a very high mountain, and showed Him all the reigns of the world, and their esteem, and said to Him, "All these I shall give You if You fall down and worship me." Then יהוה said to him, "Go, Satan! For it has been written, 'You shall worship יהוה your Elohim, and Him alone you shall serve.' " Then the devil left Him, and see, messengers came and attended Him. And יהושע, having heard that Yohanan had been put in prison, withdrew into Galil. And leaving Natsareth, He came and dwelt in Kephar Nahum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali, to fill what was spoken by Yeshayahu the nabi, saying, "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Yardĕn, Galil of the gentiles - the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, and upon those who sat in the land and shadow of death, light arose to them." From that time יהושע began to proclaim and to say, "Repent, for the reign of the shamayim has drawn near." And יהושע, walking by the Sea of Galil, saw two brothers, Shim'on called...
Kēpha, and Andri his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.

19 And He said to them, "Follow Me, and I shall make you fishers of men."

20 And immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

21 And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, Ya'aqōb of Zaḇdai, and Yohanan his brother, in the boat with Zaḇdai their father, mending their nets. And He called them,

22 and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

23 And Ḥoḇeš went about all Galil, teaching in their congregations, and proclaiming the Good News of the reign, and healing every disease and every bodily weakness among the people.

24 And news about Him went out into all Suria. And they brought to Him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and pains, and those who were demon-possessed, and epileptics, and paralytics. And He healed them.

25 And large crowds - from Galil, and Dekapolis, and Yerushalayim, and Yahudah, and beyond the Yardĕn - followed Him.

5 But when He saw the crowds, He went up on a mountain. And when He was seated His talmidim came to Him.

2 And having opened His mouth, He was teaching them, saying,

3 "Baruk are the poor in spirit, because theirs is the reign of the shamayim.

4 "Baruk are those who mourn, because they shall be comforted.

5 "Baruk are the meek, because they shall inherit the earth.

6 "Baruk are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, because they shall be filled.

7 "Baruk are the compassionate, because they shall obtain compassion.

8 "Baruk are the clean in heart, because they shall see Elohim.

9 "Baruk are the peacemakers, because they shall be called sons of Elohim.

10 "Baruk are those persecuted for righteousness' sake, because theirs is the reign of the shamayim.

11 "Baruk are you when they reproach and persecute you, and falsely say every wicked word against you, for My sake.

12 "Rejoice and be glad, because your reward in the shamayim is great. For in this way they persecuted the neḇi'īm who were before you.

13 "You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt becomes tasteless, how shall it be seasoned? For it is no longer of any use but to be thrown out and to be trodden down by men.

14 "You are the light of the world. It is impossible for a city to be hidden on a mountain.

15 "Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it shines to all those in the house.

16 "Let your light so shine before men, so that they see your good works and praise your Father who is in the shamayim.

17 "Do not think that I came to destroy the Torah or the Nebi'im. I did not come to destroy but to complete.

18 "For truly, I say to you, till the shamayim and the earth pass away, one yod or one tittle shall by no means pass from the Torah till all be done.

19 "Whoever, then, breaks one of these Commands, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the reign of the shamayim; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the reign of the shamayim.

20 "For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall by no means enter into the reign of the shamayim.

21 "You heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder,' and whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.

22 "But I say to you that whoever is wroth with his brother without a cause shall be liable to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raka!' shall be liable to the Sanhedrin. But whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be liable to fire of Gehenna.
23 "If, then, you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother holds whatever against you,
24 leave your gift there before the altar, and go, first make peace with your brother, and then come and offer your gift.
25 "Be well-minded with your opponent, promptly, while you are on the way with him, lest your opponent deliver you to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.
26 "Truly, I say to you, you shall by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.
27 "You heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not commit adultery.'
28 "But I say to you that everyone looking at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
29 "And if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members perish, than for your entire body to be thrown into Gehenna.
30 "And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members perish, than for your entire body to be thrown into Gehenna.
31 "And it has been said, 'Whoever puts away his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'
32 "But I say to you that whoever puts away his wife, except for the matter of whoring, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a woman who has been put away commits adultery.
33 "Again, you heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your oaths to יהוה.'
34 "But I say to you, do not swear falsely at all, neither by the shamayim, because it is Elohim's throne;
35 nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Yerushalayim, for it is the city of the great Sovereign;
36 nor swear by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black.
37 "But let your word 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No' be 'No.' And what goes beyond these is from the wicked one.
38 "You heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth,' 39 but I say to you, do not resist the wicked. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also.
40 "And he who wants to sue you and take away your inner garment, let him have your outer garment as well.
41 "And whoever compels you to go one millyon, go with him two.
42 "Give to him who asks of you, and from him who wants to borrow from you, do not turn away.
43 "You heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbour and hate your enemy.'
44 "But I say to you, love your enemies, barak those cursing you, do good to those hating you, and pray for those insulting you and persecuting you,
45 so that you become sons of your Father in the shamayim. Because He makes His sun rise on the wicked and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous.
46 "For if you love those loving you, what reward have you? Are the tax collectors not doing the same too?
47 "And if you greet your brothers only, what do you do more? Are the tax collectors not doing so too?
48 "Therefore, be perfect, as your Father in the shamayim is perfect.

6 "Beware of doing your kind deeds before men, in order to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in the shamayim.
2 "Thus, when you do a kind deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do, in the congregations and in the streets, to be praised by men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward.
3 "But when you do a kind deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.
4 so that your kind deed shall be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret shall Himself reward you openly.
5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the congregations and on the corners of the streets, to be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward.
6 "But you, when you pray, go into your room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place. And your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.
7 "And when praying, do not keep on babbling like the gentiles. For they think that they shall be heard for their many words.
8 "Therefore do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.
9 "This, then, is the way you should pray: 'Our Father who is in the shamayim, let Your Name be qodesh,
10 let Your reign come, let Your desire be done on earth as it is in the shamayim.
11 'Give us today our daily bread.
12 'And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
13 'And do not lead us into trial, but deliver us from the wicked one - because Yours is the reign and the power and the esteem, forever. Amĕn.'
14 "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your Father of the shamayim shall also forgive you.
15 "But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither shall your Father forgive your trespasses.
16 "And when you fast, do not be sad-faced like the hypocrites. For they disfigure their faces so that they appear to be fasting to men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward.
17 "But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face,
18 so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place. And your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.
19 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal,
20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in the shamayim, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.
21 "For where your treasure is, there your heart shall be also.
22 "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, all your body shall be enlightened.
23 "But if your eye is evil, all your body shall be darkened. If, then, the light that is within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!
24 "No one is able to serve two masters, for either he shall hate the one and love the other, or else he shall cling to the one and despise the other. You are not able to serve Elohim and wealth.
25 "Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you shall eat or drink, or about your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than the food and the body more than the clothing?
26 "Look at the birds of the shamayim, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into storehouses, yet your Father of the shamayim feeds them. Are you not worth more than they?
27 "And which of you by worrying is able to add one pĕkus to his life's span?
28 "So why do you worry about clothing? Note well the lilies of the field, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin, 29 and I say to you that even Shelomoh in all his esteem was not dressed like one of these.
30 "But if Elohim so clothes the grass of the field, which exists today, and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more you, O you of little belief?
31 "Do not worry then, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'
32 "For all these the gentiles seek for. And your Father of the shamayim knows that you need all these.
33 "But seek first the reign of Elohim, and His righteousness, and all these shall be added to you.
"Do not, then, worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow shall have its own worries. Each day has enough evil of itself."

"Do not judge, lest you be judged.

"For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged. And with the same measure you use, it shall be measured to you.

"And why do you look at the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not notice the plank in your own eye?

"Or how is it that you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the splinter out of your eye,' and see, a plank is in your own eye?

"Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to remove the splinter out of your brother's eye.

"Do not give what is qodesh to the dogs, nor throw your pearls before the pigs, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.

"Ask and it shall be given to you, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you.

"For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it shall be opened.

"For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it shall be opened.

"Or is there a man among you who, if his son asks for bread, shall give him a stone?

"Or if he asks for a fish, shall he give him a snake?

"If you then, being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father who is in the shamayim give what is good to those who ask Him!

"Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Torah and the Nebi'im.

"Enter in through the narrow gate! Because the gate is wide - and the way is broad - that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter in through it.

"Because the gate is narrow and the way is hard pressed which leads to ḥai, and there are few who find it.

"But beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are savage wolves.

"By their fruits you shall know them. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes or figs from thistles?

"So every good tree yields good fruit, but a rotten tree yields wicked fruit.

"A good tree is unable to yield wicked fruit, and a rotten tree to yield good fruit.

"Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

"So then, by their fruits you shall know them -

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Master, Master,' shall enter into the reign of the shamayim, but he who is doing the desire of My Father in the shamayim.

"Many shall say to Me in that day, 'Master, Master, have we not nabu in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and done many mighty works in Your Name?'

"And then I shall declare to them, 'I never knew you, depart from Me, you who work lawlessness!'

"Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does them, shall be like a wise man who built his house on the rock,

"and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.

"And everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does not do them, shall be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand,

"and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it fell, and great was its fall.''

And it came to be, when Ḥiṣaš had ended these words, that the people were astonished at His teaching.

And when He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him.

And, see, a leper came, and bowed... before Him, saying, "Master, if You desire, You are able to make me clean."
3 And stretching out His hand触摸他，saying, "I desire it. Be cleansed!" And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
4 And 触摸他 said to him, "See, mention it to no one. But go your way, show yourself to the kohen, and offer the gift that Mosheh commanded, as a witness to them."
5 And when 触摸他 had entered Kephar Naḥum, a captain came to Him, appealing to Him,
6 saying, "Master, my servant is lying in the house paralysed, grievously tortured."
7 And 触摸他 said to him, "I shall come and heal him."
8 And the captain answering, said, "Master, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only say a word, and my servant shall be healed.
9 "For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."
10 And when 触摸他 heard, He marvelled, and said to those who followed, "Truly, I say to you, not even in Yisra'ĕl have I found such great belief!
11 "And I say to you that many shall come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, and Yitshaq, and Ya'aqob in the reign of the shamayim,
12 but the sons of the reign shall be cast out into outer darkness - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
13 And 触摸他 said to the captain, "Go, and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that hour.
14 And when 触摸他 had come into the house of Kēpha, He saw his wife's mother lying sick with inflammation.
15 And He touched her hand, and the inflammation left her. And she arose and served them.
16 And when evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick,
17 that it might be filled what was spoken by Yeshayahu the nabi, saying, "He Himself took our weaknesses and bore our sicknesses."
18 And when 触摸他 saw large crowds about Him, He gave a command to go off to the other side.
19 And a certain scribe, having come near, said to Him, "Teacher, I shall follow You wherever You go."
20 And 触摸他 said to him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the shamayim nests, but the Bĕn of Adam has nowhere to lay His head."
21 And another of His talmidim said to Him, "Master, first let me go and bury my father."
22 But 触摸他 said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."
23 And when He entered into a boat, His talmidim followed Him.
24 And see, a great gale arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves. But He was sleeping.
25 And His talmidim came to Him and woke Him up, saying, "Master, save us! We are perishing!"
26 And He said to them, "Why are you afraid, O you of little belief?" Then, having risen, He rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm.
27 And the men marvelled, saying, "What is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"
28 And when He came to the other side, to the country of the Girgashites, two demon-possessed ones met Him, coming out of the tombs, very fierce, so that no one was able to pass that way.
29 And see, they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with You, 触摸他, Bĕn of Elohim? Have You come here to torture us, before the appointed time?"
30 And at a distance from them there was a herd of many pigs feeding.
31 and the demons begged Him, saying, "If You cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs."
32 And He said to them, "Go." And they, coming out, went into the herd of pigs. And see, the entire herd of pigs rushed down the steep place into the sea, and died in the water.
33 And the herdsmen fled, and went away into the city and reported all this, and about those possessed by demons.
34 And see, all the city came out to meet יהושע. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their borders.

9 And entering into a boat, He passed over, and came to His own city.
2 And see, they were bringing to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. And יהושע, seeing their belief, said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son, your sins have been forgiven."
3 And see, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This One blasphemes!"
4 And יהושע, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think wickedness in your hearts?
5 "For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven,' or to say, 'Arise and walk'?
6 "But in order for you to know that the Bĕn of Adam possesses authority on earth to forgive sins..." He then said to the paralytic, "Rise, take up your bed, and go to your house."
7 And he rose and went to his house.
8 And when the crowds saw it, they marvelled and praised Elohim who had given such authority to men.
9 And as יהושע passed on from there, He saw a man called Mattithyahu sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me." And he rose and followed Him.
10 And it came to be, as יהושע sat at the table in the house, that see, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His talmidim.
11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His talmidim, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"
12 And יהושע hearing this, said to them, "Those who are strong have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.
13 "But go and learn what this means, 'I desire compassion and not offering.' For I did not come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners."
14 Then the talmidim of Yohanan came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your talmidim do not fast?"
15 And יהושע said to them, "Are the friends of the bridegroom able to mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days shall come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they shall fast.
16 "And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.
17 "Neither do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."
18 While He was saying all this to them, see, a ruler came and bowed down to Him, saying, "My daughter is dead by now, but come and lay Your hand on her and she shall live.'
19 And יהושע rose and followed him, His talmidim too.
20 And see, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and touched the tsitsit of His garment.
21 For she said to herself, "If I only touch His garment, I shall be healed.'
22 But יהושע turned, and when He saw her He said, "Take courage, daughter, your belief has healed you." And the woman was healed from that hour.
23 And when יהושע came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players and the crowd making a noise,
24 He said to them, "Go back, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they laughed at Him.
25 But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.
And this report went out into all that land.

And as ḤJoshua passed on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, "Bēn of Dawiḏ, have compassion on us!"

And when He came into the house, the blind men came to Him. And ḤJoshua said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Master."

Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your belief let it be to you."

And their eyes were opened. And ḤJoshua strictly ordered them, saying, "See, let no one know."

But when they went out, they made Him known in all that land.

And as they were going out, see, they brought to Him a man, dumb and demon-possessed.

And when the demon was cast out, the dumb one spoke. And the crowds marvelled, saying, "It was never seen like this in Yisra'ĕl!"

But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons."

And ḤJoshua went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their congregations, and proclaiming the Good News of the reign, and healing every disease and every bodily weakness among the people.

And having seen the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, as sheep having no shepherd.

Then He said to His talmidim, "The harvest truly is great, but the workers are few.

"Pray then that the Master of the harvest would send out workers to His harvest."

And having called His twelve talmidim near, He gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every bodily weakness.

And these are the names of the twelve emissaries: first, Shim'on, who is called Kēpha, and Andri his brother;

Ya'aqob the son of Zabdai, and Yoḥanan his brother;

3 Philippos and Bartholomi; T'oma and Mattityahu the tax collector; Ya'aqob of Ḥeleph, and Labai whose last name was Taddai;

4 Shim'on the Kena'anite, and Yahuḏah from Qeriyoth, who also delivered Him up.

5 ḤJoshua sent these twelve out, having commanded them, saying, "Do not go into the way of the gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Shomeronites, but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'ĕl.

6 "And as you go, proclaim, saying, 'The reign of the shamayim has drawn near.'

7 "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. You have received without paying, give without being paid.

8 "Do not acquire gold or silver or copper for your moneybelts, or a bag for the journey, or two undergarments, or sandals, or staffs, for the worker is worthy of his food.

9 "And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

12 "And as you enter into a house, greet it.

13 "And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 "And whoever does not receive you nor hear your words, when you leave that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.

15 "Truly, I say to you, it shall be more bearable for the land of Sedom and Amorah in the day of judgment than for that city!

16 "See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

17 "But beware of men, for they shall deliver you up to sanhedrins and flog you in their congregations.

18 "And you shall be brought before governors and sovereigns for My sake, as a witness to them and to the gentiles.

19 "But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it shall be given to you in that hour what you shall speak, for it is not you who speak, but the Ruah of your Father speaking in you.

"And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and a father his child. And children shall rise up against parents and shall put them to death.

"And you shall be hated by all for My Name's sake. But he who shall have endured to the end shall be saved.

"And when they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For truly, I say to you, you shall by no means have gone through the cities of Yisra'ĕl before the Bĕn of Adam comes.

"A talmid is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. "It is enough for the talmid to become like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Be'elzebul, how much more those of his household!

"Therefore do not fear them. For whatever is covered shall be revealed, and whatever is hidden shall be made known.

"What I say to you in the dark, speak in the light. And what you hear in the ear, proclaim on the house-tops.

"And do not fear those who kill the body but are unable to kill the being. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both being and body in Gehenna.

"Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground without your Father.

"And even the hairs of your head are all numbered.

"So do not fear, you are worth more than many sparrows.

"Everyone, therefore, who shall confess Me before men, him I shall also confess before My Father who is in the shamayim.

"But whoever shall deny Me before men, him I shall also deny before My Father who is in the shamayim.

"Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword, for I have come to bring division, a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law - and a man's enemies are those of his own household.

"He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me, and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.

"And he who does not take up his stake and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.

"He who has found his life shall lose it, and he that has lost his life for My sake shall find it.

"He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.

"He who receives a naḇi in the name of a naḇi shall receive a naḇi's reward. And he who receives a righteous one in the name of a righteous one shall receive a righteous one's reward.

"And whoever gives one of these little ones a cold cupful only in the name of a talmid, truly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward."

11 And it came to be, when יהושע ended instructing His twelve talmidim, that He departed from there to teach and to proclaim in their cities.

2 And when Yohanan had heard in the prison of the works of Mashiah, he sent two of his talmidim and said to Him, "Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

4 And יהושע answering, said to them, "Go, report to Yohanan what you hear and see:

5 "Blind receive sight and lame walk, lepers are cleansed and deaf hear, dead are raised up and poor are brought the Good News.

6 "And baruk is he who does not stumble in Me."

7 And as these were going, יהושע began to say to the crowds concerning Yohanan, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?"
"But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Look, those wearing fine softness are in the houses of sovereigns.

"But what did you go out to see? A nabi? Yes, I say to you, and more than a nabi.

"For this is he of whom it was written, 'See, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You.'

"Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than Yohanan the Immerser, yet the least one in the reign of the shamayim is greater than he.

"And from the days of Yohanan the Immerser till now, the reign of the shamayim is violated, and the violent seize it.

"For all the Nebi'īm and the Torah nabu till Yohanan.

"And if you want to accept it, he is Ėliyahu who was about to come.

"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

"And to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to their companions, and saying, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we lamented to you, and you did not beat the breast.'

"For Yohanan came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.'

"The Bĕn of Aḡām came eating and drinking, and they say, 'See, a man, a glutton and a winedrinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners! And wisdom was declared right by her works.'

Then He began to reproach the cities in which most of His miracles had been done, because they did not repent:

"Woe to you, Ḫorazin! Woe to you, Bĕyth Tsaiḡa! Because if the miracles which were done in you had been done in Tsor and Tsiqon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

"But I say to you, it shall be more bearable for Tsor and Tsiqon in the day of judgment than for you.

"And you, Kephar Nahum, who were exalted to the shamayim, shall be brought down to the grave! Because if the miracles which were done in you had been done in Sĕdom, it would have remained until this day.

"But I say to you that it shall be more bearable for the land of Sĕdom in the day of judgment than for you."

At that time Ūḇḏěḵ responding, said, "I thank You, Father, Master of the shamayim and earth, because You have hidden these from clever and learned ones and have revealed them to children.

"Yes, Father, because so it was well-pleasing in Your sight.

"All have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Bĕn except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Bĕn, and he to whom the Bĕn wants to reveal Him.

"Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened, and I shall give you rest.

"Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am meek and humble in heart, and you shall find rest for your beings.

"For My yoke is gentle and My burden is light."

At that time Ūḇḏěḵ went through the grain fields on the Shabbath. And His talmidim were hungry, and began to pluck heads of grain, to eat.

And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your talmidim are doing what is not right to do on the Shabbath!"

But He said to them, "Have you not read what Dawid did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him; how he went into the House of Elohim and ate the showbread which was not right for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the kohenim?

"Or did you not read in the Torah that on the Shabbath the kohenim in the Miqdash profane the Shabbath, and are blameless?
6 "But I say to you that in this place there is One greater than the Miqdash.
7 "And if you had known what this means, 'I desire compassion and not offering,' you would not have condemned the blameless.
8 "For the Bĕn of Aḏām is Master of the Shabbath."
9 And having left there, He went into their congregation.
10 And see, there was a man having a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, "Is it right to heal on the Shabbath?" - so as to accuse Him.
11 And He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Shabbath, shall not take hold of it and lift it out?
12 "How much more worth is a man than a sheep! So it is right to do good on the Shabbath."
13 Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored, as healthy as the other.
14 But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against Him, so as to destroy Him.
15 But Ḥoḇádá, knowing it, withdrew from there. And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all,
16 and warned them not to make Him known, in order that what was spoken by Yeshayahu the nabi, might be filled,
17 saying, "See, My Servant whom I have chosen, My Beloved in whom My being delights. I shall put My Ruah upon Him, and He shall declare right-ruling to the nations.
18 "He shall not strive nor cry out, nor shall anyone hear His voice in the streets.
19 "A crushed reed He shall not break, and smoking flax He shall not quench, till He brings forth right-ruling forever.
20 "And the nations shall trust in His Name."
21 Then they brought to Him one who was demon-possessed, blind and dumb. And He healed him, so that the blind and dumb man both spoke and saw.
22 And all the crowds were amazed and said, "Is this the Bĕn of Dawid?"
23 But when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This one does not cast out demons except by Be'elzebul, the ruler of the demons."
24 And Ḥoḇádá knew their thoughts, and said to them, "Every reign divided against itself is laid waste, and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.
25 "And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then does his reign stand?
26 "And if I, by Be'elzebul, do cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this they shall be your judges.
27 "But if I cast out demons by the Ruḥ of Elohim, then the reign of Elohim has come upon you.
28 "Or how is one able to enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he shall plunder his house.
29 "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.
30 "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.
31 "Because of this I say to you, all sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Ruḥ shall not be forgiven men.
32 "And whoever speaks a word against the Bĕn of Aḏām, it shall be forgiven him, but whoever speaks against the Ruḥ ha'Qodesh, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.
33 "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten, for a tree is known by its fruit.
34 "Brood of adders! How are you able to speak what is good - being wicked? For the mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart.
35 "The good man brings forth what is good from the good treasures of his heart, and the wicked man brings forth what is wicked from the wicked treasure.
"And I say to you that for every idle word men speak, they shall give an account of it in the day of judgment.

For by your words you shall be declared righteous, and by your words you shall be declared unrighteous."

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

But He answering, said to them, "A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the nabi Yonah.

For as Yonah was three days and three nights in the stomach of the great fish, so shall the Bĕn of Adam be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

Men of Ninewĕh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Yonah, and look, a greater than Yonah is here.

"The sovereignty of the South shall rise up in the judgment with this generation and shall condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shelomoh, and look, a greater than Shelomoh is here.

"Now when the unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.

"Then it says, 'I shall return to my house from which I came.' And when it comes, it finds it empty, swept, and decorated.

"Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

And while He was still talking to the crowds, see, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him.

And one said to Him, "See, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."

But He answering, said to the one who spoke to Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?"

And having stretched out His hand toward His talmidim, He said, "See My mother and My brothers!"

"For whoever does the desire of My Father who is in the shamayim is My brother and sister and mother."

And on that day ὦ ἡμέρα went out of the house and sat by the sea.

And large crowds were gathered together to Him, so that He went into a boat and sat down. And all the crowd stood on the beach.

And He spoke to them much in parables, saying, "See, the sower went out to sow.

"And as he sowed, some indeed fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured them.

"And others fell on rocky places, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil.

"But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered.

"And others fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them.

"And others fell on good soil and yielded a crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

And the talmidim came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

And He answering, said to them, "Because it has been given to you to know the secrets of the reign of the shamayim, but to them it has not been given.

"For whoever possesses, to him more shall be given, and he shall have overflowing; but whoever does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away from him.

"Because of this I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

"And in them the neḇuḥa of Yeshayahu is completely filled, which says, 'Hearing you shall hear and by no means understand, and seeing you shall see and by no means perceive, for the heart of this people has become thickened, and their ears are hard of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, lest they should understand with their heart, and turn back, and I heal them.'

''And baruk are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear, for truly I say to you, that many nebi'im and righteous ones longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

"You, then, hear the parable of the sower:

When anyone hears the word of the reign, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is that sown by the wayside.

And that sown on rocky places, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, yet he has no root in himself, but is short-lived, and when pressure or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles.

"And that sown among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the worry of this age and the deceit of riches choke the word, and it becomes fruitless.

"And that sown on the good soil is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields - some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

Another parable He put before them, saying, "The reign of the shamayim has become like a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel among the wheat and went away.

"And when the blade sprouted and bore fruit, then the darnel also appeared.

"And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have the darnel?'

"And he said to them, 'A man, an enemy did this.' And the servants said to him, 'Do you want then, that we go and gather them up?'

"But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the darnel you also uproot the wheat with them.

'Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I shall say to the reapers, 'First gather the darnel and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my granary.'" '

Another parable He put before them, saying, "The reign of the shamayim is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field, which indeed is less than all the seeds, but when it is grown it is greater than the plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the shamayim come and dwell in its branches."

Another parable He spoke to them, "The reign of the shamayim is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until all was leavened."

Olam said all this to the crowds in parables, and He did not speak to them without a parable, so that what was spoken by the nabi might be filled, saying, "I shall open My mouth in parables, I shall pour forth what has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

Then, having sent the crowds away, יהושע went into the house. And His talmidim came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field."

And He answering, said to them, "He who is sowing the good seed is the Bĕn of Adam, and the field is the world. And the good seed, these are the sons of the reign, but the darnel are the sons of the wicked one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. And the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the messengers.

"As the darnel, then, is gathered and burned in the fire, so it shall be at the end of this age.

41 "The Ben of Adam shall send out His messengers, and they shall gather out of His reign all the stumbling-blocks, and those doing lawlessness, and shall throw them into the furnace of fire - there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

42 "Then the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the reign of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

43 "Again, the reign of the shamayim is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man having found it, hid, and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

44 "Again, the reign of the shamayim is like a man, a merchant, seeking fine pearls,

45 who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

46 "Again, the reign of the shamayim is like a dragnet that was thrown into the sea and gathered some of every kind, which, when it was filled, they drew to shore. And they sat down and gathered the good into containers, but threw the rotten away.

47 "Thus shall it be at the end of the age: the messengers shall come forth, and separate the wicked out of the midst of the righteous, and shall throw them into the furnace of fire - there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51 מתייתahu said to them, "Have you understood all this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Master."

52 And He said to them, "Therefore every scholar taught in the reign of the shamayim is like a householder who brings out of his treasure, renewed, and old."

53 And it came to be, when מתייתahu had ended these parables, that He left there.

54 And when He had come to His own country, He taught them in their congregation, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this One get this wisdom and miracles?

55 "Is this not the son of the carpenter? Is not His mother called Miryam? And His brothers Ya'aqob and Yoséph and Shim'on and Yahuḏah?

56 "And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this One get all this?"

57 And they stumbled at Him. But מתייתahu said to them, "A nabi is not unappreciated except in his own country and in his own house."

58 And He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

14 At that time Ḥěrodĕs the district ruler heard the report about מתייתahu,

2 and said to his servants, "This is Yohanan the Immerser. He has risen from the dead, and that is why these mighty powers are at work in him."

3 For Ḥěrodĕs had arrested Yohanan, bound him and put him in prison because of Ḥěrodias, his brother Philippos' wife,

4 for Yohanan had said to him, "It is not right for you to have her."

5 And wanting to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they held him as a nabi.

6 But as Ḥěrodĕs' birthday was being held, the daughter of Ḥěrodias danced before them and pleased Ḥěrodĕs,

7 so he promised with an oath to give whatever she asked.

8 And she, being urged on by her mother, said, "Give me here the head of Yohanan the Immerser on a dish."

9 And the sovereign was sad, but because of the oaths and the guests he commanded it to be given,

10 and sent and beheaded Yohanan in prison.

11 And his head was brought on a dish and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his talmidim came and took away the body and buried it, and went and reported to מתייתahu.

13 Now when מתייתahu heard it, He withdrew from there by boat to a deserted place, by Himself. And when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities.

14 And when מתייתahu came out, He saw a large crowd and was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick.
15 And when evening came, His talmidim came to Him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds, so that they might go into the villages and buy food for themselves."
16 But יהושע said to them, "They do not need to go away, give them to eat yourselves."
17 And they said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."
18 And He said, "Bring them here to Me."
19 And commanding the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the shamayim, He barak and broke and gave the loaves to the talmidim.
20 And the talmidim gave to the crowds, and all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up the pieces left over - twelve baskets, filled.
21 And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.
22 And immediately יהושע made His talmidim enter into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds.
23 And having dismissed the crowds, He went up to the mountain by Himself to pray. And when evening had come, He was alone there.
24 But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, agitated by the waves, for the wind was against it.
25 And in the fourth watch of the night יהושע went to them, walking on the sea.
26 And when the talmidim saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a phantom!" And from fear they cried.
27 But immediately יהושע spoke to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid."
28 And Kĕpha answered Him and said, "Master, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."
29 And He said, "Come." And when Kĕpha had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to יהושע.
30 But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Master, save me!"
31 And immediately יהושע stretched out His hand and took hold of him, and said to him, "O you of little belief, why did you doubt?"
32 And when they came into the boat, the wind ceased.
33 And those in the boat came and bowed to Him, saying, "Truly You are the Bĕn of יהוה."
34 And having passed over, they came to the land of Gennĕsar.
35 And when the men of that place recognised Him, they sent out into all that surrounding country, and brought to Him all who were sick,
36 and begged Him to let them only touch the tsitsit of His garment. And as many as touched it were completely healed.
15 Then there came to יהושע scribes and Pharisees from Yerushalayim, saying,
2 "Why do Your talmidim transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."
3 But He answering, said to them, "Why do you also transgress the Command of Elohim because of your tradition?
4 ''For Elohim has commanded, saying, 'Respect your father and your mother,' and, 'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'"
5 "But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me has been dedicated,"
6 is certainly released from respecting his father or mother.' So you have nullified the Command of Elohim by your tradition.
7 "Hypocrites! Yeshayahu rightly nabu about you, saying,
8 'This people draw near to Me with their mouth, and respect Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.
9 'But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as teachings the commands of men.'"
And calling the crowd near, He said to them, "Hear and understand:

"Not that which goes into the mouth defiles the man, but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

Then His talmidim came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees stumbled when they heard this word?"

But He answering, said, "Every plant which My Father of the shamayim has not planted shall be uprooted.

"Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both shall fall into a ditch."

And Kĕpha answering, said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

And יהושע said, "Are you also still without understanding?

"Do you not understand that whatever enters into the mouth goes into the stomach, and is cast out in the sewer?

"But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and these defile the man.

"For out of the heart come forth wicked reasonings, murders, adulteries, whorings, thefts, false witnessings, slanders.

"These defile the man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

And יהושע went out from there and withdrew to the parts of Tsor and Tsidon.

And see, a woman of Kena'an came from those borders and cried out to Him, saying, "Have compassion on me, O Master, Bĕn of Dawid! My daughter is badly demon-possessed."

But He did not answer her a word. And His talmidim came and asked Him, saying, "Send her away, because she cries after us."

And He answering, said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'ĕl."

But she said, "Yes Master, for even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."

And יהושע answering, said to her, "O woman, your belief is great! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

And moving from there, יהושע came toward the Sea of Galil, and going up on the mountain, He was sitting there.

And large crowds came to Him, having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, crippled, and many others. And they laid them down at the feet of יהושע, and He healed them, so that the crowd marvelled when they saw the dumb speaking, the crippled well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they praised the Elohim of Yisra'ĕl.

And יהושע, having called His talmidim near, said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have now continued with Me three days and do not have whatever to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."

And His talmidim said to Him, "Where are we to get enough bread in the desert to satisfy such a large crowd?"

And יהושע said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."

And He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground, and taking the seven loaves and the fish, giving thanks, He broke them and gave to His talmidim, and the talmidim to the crowd.

And all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces - seven large baskets, filled.

And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

And dismissing the crowd, He went into the boat, and came to the borders of Maḏḏala.

And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and trying Him asked that He would show them a sign from the shamayim.
2 And He answering, said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'Fair weather, for the shamayim is red,'
3 and in the morning, 'Stormy weather today, for the shamayim is red and overcast.' You hypocrites know how to discern the face of the shamayim, but not the signs of the times!
4 "A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the nabi Yonah." And He left them and went away.

And His talmidim came to the other side, and had forgotten to take bread.
6 And יהושע said to them, ''Mind! And beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.''
7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, ''Because we brought no bread!''
8 But יהושע, aware of this, said to them, "O you of little belief, why do you reason among yourselves because you brought no bread?
9 "Do you still not understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you picked up?
10 "Or the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you picked up?
11 "How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread, but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees?"
12 Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

Now when יהושע came into the parts of Caesarea Philippos, He asked His talmidim, saying, "Who do men say the Bĕn of Adam is?"
14 And they said, "Some Yohanan the Immerser, and others Ėliyahu, and others Yirmeyahu or one of the nebi'im."
15 He said to them, "And you, who do you say I am?"
16 And Shim'on Kĕpha answering, said, "You are ha'Mashiah, the Bĕn of the living Elohim."
17 And יהושע answering, said to him, "Baruk are you, Shim'on Bar-Yonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father in the shamayim.
18 "And I also say to you that you are Kĕpha, and on this rock I shall build My assembly, and the gates of the grave shall not overcome it.
19 "And I shall give you the keys of the reign of the shamayim, and whatever you bind on earth shall be having been bound in the shamayim, and whatever you loosen on earth shall be having been loosened in the shamayim."
20 Then He warned His talmidim that they should say to no one that He is יהושע ha'Mashiah.
21 From that time יהושע began to show to His talmidim that it was necessary for Him to go to Yerushalayim, and to suffer much from the elders and chief kohenim and scribes, and be killed, and to be raised again the third day.
22 And Kĕpha took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Be kind to Yourself, Master, this shall not be to You!"
23 But He turned and said to Kĕpha, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to Me, for your thoughts are not those of Elohim, but those of men."
24 Then יהושע said to His talmidim, "If anyone wants to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his stake, and follow Me.
25 "For whoever wants to save his life shall lose it, and whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it.
26 "For what is a man profited if he gains all the world, and loses his own life? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his life?
27 "For the Bĕn of Adam is going to come in the esteem of His Father with His messengers, and then He shall reward each according to his works.
28 "Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death at all until they see the Bĕn of Adam coming in His reign:"

17 And after six days יהושע took Kĕpha, and Ya'aqob, and Yoĥanan his brother, and brought them up on a high mountain by themselves,

2 and He was transformed before them, and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as the light.

3 And see, Mosheh and Ėliyahu appeared to them, talking with Him.

4 And Kĕpha answering, said to יהושע, "Master, it is good for us to be here. If You want, let us make here three booths: one for You, one for Mosheh, and one for Ėliyahu."

5 While he was still speaking, see, a bright cloud overshadowed them. And see, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Bĕn, the Beloved, in whom I delight. Hear Him!"

6 And when the talmidim heard, they fell on their faces and were much afraid.

7 But יהושע came near and touched them and said, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

8 And having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but יהושע only.

9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, יהושע commanded them, saying, "Do not mention the vision to anyone until the Bĕn of Adam is raised from the dead."

10 And His talmidim asked Him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Ėliyahu has to come first?"

11 And יהושע answering, said to them, "Ėliyahu is indeed coming first, and shall restore all."

12 "But I say to you that Ėliyahu has already come, and they did not recognise him but did to him whatever they wanted. In this way the Bĕn of Adam is also about to suffer by them."

13 Then the talmidim understood that He had spoken to them about Yohanan the Immerser.

14 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying,

15 "Master, have compassion on my son, for he is an epileptic and suffers badly, for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

16 "And I brought him to Your talmidim, but they were unable to heal him."

17 And יהושע answering, said, "O generation, unbelieving and perverted, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me."

18 And יהושע rebuked the demon, and he came out of him. And the child was healed from that hour.

19 Then the talmidim came to יהושע by Himself and said, "Why were we unable to cast him out?"

20 And יהושע said to them, "Because of your unbelief, for truly, I say to you, if you have belief as a mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it shall move. And no matter shall be impossible for you.

21 "But this kind does not go out except through prayer and fasting."

22 And while they were staying in Galil, יהושע said to them, "The Bĕn of Adam is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23 and they shall kill Him, and the third day He shall be raised up." And they were deeply grieved.

24 And when they came into Kephar Nahum, those who received the tax came to Kĕpha and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the tax?"

25 He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, יהושע spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Shim'on? From whom do the sovereigns of the earth take toll or tax, from their own sons or from the strangers?"

26 Kĕpha said to Him, "From the strangers." יהושע said to him, "Then the sons are exempt.

27 "But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you shall find a coin. Take that and give it to them for Me and you."

18 At that time the talmidim came to יהושע, saying, "Who, then, is greatest in the reign of the shamayim?"
2 And called a little child to Him, put him in their midst,
3 and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become as little children, you shall by no means enter into the reign of the shamayim.
4 "Whoever then humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the reign of the shamayim.
5 "And whoever receives one little child like this in My Name receives Me.
6 "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it is better for him that a millstone be hung around his neck, and that he be drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 "Woe to the world because of stumbling-blocks! For it is necessary that stumbling-blocks come, but woe to that man by whom the stumbling-block comes!
8 "And if your hand or foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into the everlasting fire.
9 "And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be thrown into the fire of Gehenna.
10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in the shamayim their messengers always see the face of My Father who is in the shamayim.
11 "For the Bĕn of Adam has come to save what was lost.
12 "What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, would he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains, going to seek the one that is straying?
13 "And if he should find it, truly, I say to you that in the shamayim their messengers always see the face of My Father who is in the shamayim.
14 "Thus it is not the desire of your Father who is in the shamayim that one of these little ones should be lost.
15 "And if your brother sins against you, go and reprove him, between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.
16 "But if he does not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be established.'
17 "And if he refuses to hear them, say it to the assembly. And if he refuses even to hear the assembly, let him be to you like a gentile and a tax collector.
18 "Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be having been bound in the shamayim, and whatever you loosen on earth shall be having been loosened in the shamayim.
19 "Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning any matter that they ask, it shall be done for them by My Father in the shamayim.
20 "For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there I am in their midst.
21 Then Kĕpha came to Him and said, "Master, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?"
22 said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.
23 "Because of this the reign of the shamayim is like a certain man, a sovereign who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.
24 "And when he had begun to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talanton,
25 but as he was unable to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made.
26 "Then the servant fell down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I shall pay you all.'
27 "And the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.
28 "And that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred silver pieces. And he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!'
"Then his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I shall pay you all.'

But he would not, and went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt.

And when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were deeply grieved, and came and reported to their master all that had taken place.

Then his master called him and said to him, 'Wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt seeing you begged me.

Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, as I also had compassion on you?'

And his master was wroth, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.

So also My Father of the shamayim shall do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses.'

And it came to be, when had ended these words, that He left Galil and came to the borders of Yahudah beyond the Yardên.

And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

And the Pharisees came to Him, trying Him, and saying to Him, 'Is it right for a man to put away his wife for every reason?'

And He answering, said to them, 'Did you not read that He who made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and join unto his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?'

'So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what Elohim has joined together, let man not separate.'

They said to Him, 'Why then did Mosheh command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?'

He said to them, 'Because of the hardness of your hearts, Mosheh allowed you to put away your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

"And I say to you, whoever puts away his wife, except on the ground of whoring, and marries another, commits adultery. And whoever marries her who has been put away commits adultery."

His talmidim said to Him, "If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is good not to marry."

And He said to them, "Not all receive this word, but only those to whom it has been given, for there are eunuchs who were so born from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the reign of the shamayim. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."

Then young children were brought to Him to lay His hands on them and pray, and the talmidim rebuked them.

But said, "Allow the young children and do not stop them from coming to Me, for of such is the reign of the shamayim."

And having laid hands on them He went from there.

And see, one came and said to Him, "Good Teacher, what good shall I do to have everlasting hai?"

And He said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One - Elohim. But if you want to enter into hai, guard the Commands."

He said to Him, "Which?" And said, "'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You shall not steal,' 'You shall not bear false witness,' 'Respect your father and your mother,' and 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.'"

The young man said to Him, "All these I have watched over from my youth, what do I still lack?"

said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in the shamayim. And come, follow Me."

And when the young man heard the word, he went away sad, because he had many possessions.
23 And said to His talmidim, "Truly, I say to you that it is hard for a rich man to enter into the reign of the shamayim.
24 And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the reign of Elohim."
25 And when His talmidim heard it, they were very astonished, saying, "Who then is able to be saved?"
26 And looking intently said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with Elohim all is possible."
27 Then Kĕpha answering, said to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You. What then shall we have?"
28 And said to them, "Truly I say to you, when the Bĕn of Adam sits on the throne of His esteem, you who have followed Me in the rebirth, shall also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisra'ĕl.
29 "And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My Name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting hai.
30 "But many who are first shall be last, and the last first.

20 "For the reign of the shamayim is like a man, a householder who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.
2 "And when he had agreed with the workers for a silver piece a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
3 "And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the market-place,
4 and said to them, 'You too go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you shall give you.' And they went.
5 "Having gone out again about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did likewise.
6 "And about the eleventh hour, having gone out, he found others standing idle, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?'
7 "They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you shall receive.'
8 "And when evening came, the master of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.'
9 "And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a silver piece.
10 "And when the first came, they thought they would receive more. But they too received each a silver piece.
11 "And when they received it, they grumbled against the householder,
12 saying, 'These last have worked one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.'
13 "But he answering, said to one of them, 'Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a silver piece?
14 'Take yours and go. But I want to give to this last man as also to you.
15 'Is it not right for me to do what I want with my own? Or is your eye evil because I am good?'
16 "Thus the last shall be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen."
17 And going up to Yerushalayim, took the twelve talmidim aside on the way and said to them,
18 "See, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and the Bĕn of Aḏām shall be delivered up to the chief kohenim and to the scribes. And they shall condemn Him to death,
19 and deliver Him to the gentiles to mock and to flog and to impale. And the third day He shall be raised."
20 Then the mother of the sons of Zabdai came to Him with her sons, bowing down and making a request of Him.
21 And He said to her, "What do you want?" She said to Him, "Command that these two sons of mine might sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your reign."
22 But answering, said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and to be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?'' They said to Him, "We are able."
23 And He said to them, "You shall indeed drink My cup, and you shall be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with. But to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."
24 And when the ten heard it, they were displeased at the two brothers.
25 But יהושע called them near and said, "You know that the rulers of the gentiles are masters over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.
26 "But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you, let him be your servant.
27 "And whoever wants to be first among you, let him be your servant, even as the Bĕn of Adam did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His hai as a ransom for many."
28 And as they were leaving Yeriho, a large crowd followed Him.
29 And as they were leaving Yeriho, a large crowd followed Him.
30 And see, two blind men sitting by the way, having heard that יהושע was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have compassion on us, O Master, Bĕn of Dawid!"
31 And the crowd rebuked them that they should be silent, but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have compassion on us, O Master, Bĕn of Dawid!"
32 And יהושע stopped and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for you?"
33 They said to Him, "Master, that our eyes be opened."
34 And having been moved with compassion, יהושע touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.
35 And when they came near to Yerushalayim, and came to Bĕyth Phagi, at the Mount of Olives, then יהושע sent two talmidim, saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and straightway you shall find a donkey tied, and a colt with her, loosen, and bring them to Me."
36 "And if anyone says whatever to you, you shall say, 'The Master needs them,' and immediately he shall send them."
37 And all this took place that it might be filled what was spoken by the naḇi, saying,
38 "Say to the daughter of Tsion, 'See, your Sovereign is coming to you, meek, and sitting on a donkey, even a colt, the foal of a donkey.' "
39 And the talmidim went, and having done as יהושע ordered them, they brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their garments on them, and He sat on them. And most of the crowd spread their garments on the way, while others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the way.
40 And the crowds who went before and those who followed cried out, saying, "Hoshia-na to the Bĕn of Dawid! Baruk is He who is coming in the Name of יהוה! Hoshia-na in the highest!"
41 And as He entered into Yerushalayim, all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?"
42 And the crowds said, "This is יהושע, the naḇi from Natsareth of Galil."
43 And יהושע went into the Miqdash of Elohim and drove out all those buying and selling in the Miqdash, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold doves.
44 And blind and lame ones came to Him in the Miqdash, and He healed them.
45 But when the chief kohenim and scribes saw the wonders which He did, and the children crying out in the Miqdash and saying, "Hoshia-na to the Bĕn of Dawid!" they were greatly displeased,
46 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these say?" And יהושע said to them, "Yes, have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of children and nurslings You
17 And having left them He went out of the city to Bēyth Anyah, and spent the night there.
18 And returning to the city early in the morning, He became hungry.
19 And seeing a single fig tree by the way, He came to it and found naught on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you ever again." And immediately the fig tree withered.
20 And the talmidim, seeing it, marvelled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither so soon?"
21 And Ḥuṣaynu answering, said to them, "Truly, I say to you, if you have belief and do not doubt, you shall not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be thrown into the sea,' it shall be done.
22 "And whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive."
23 And when He had come into the Miqdash, the chief kohenim and the elders of the people came to Him as He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these? And who gave You this authority?"
24 And Ḥuṣaynu answering, said to them, "I shall ask you one question too, which if you answer Me, I also shall say to you by what authority I do these:
25 "The immersion of Yohanan, where did it come from? From the shamayim or from men?" So they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From the shamayim,' He shall say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?'
26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd, for all hold Yohanan as a nabi."
27 And they answered Ḥuṣaynu and said, "We do not know." And He said to them, "Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these:
28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my vineyard.'
29 "And he answering, said, 'I do not want to,' but afterwards he repented and went.
30 "And having come to the second, he said similarly. And he answering, said, 'I go, master,' but he did not go.
31 "Which of the two did the desire of the father?" They said to Him, "The first." Ḥuṣaynu said to them, "Truly, I say to you that tax collectors and whores are entering into the reign of Elohim before you,
32 for Yohanan came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but tax collectors and whores believed him. And when you saw it, you did not repent afterwards, to believe him.
33 "Hear another parable: There was a certain man, a householder who planted a vineyard and placed a hedge around it, and dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower. And he leased it to farmers and went abroad.
34 "And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive its fruit.
35 "And the farmers took his servants and beat one, and they killed one, and they stoned another.
36 "Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them.
37 "And at last he sent his son to them, saying, 'They shall respect my son.'
38 "But when the farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and let us possess his inheritance.'
39 "And they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.
40 "Therefore, when the master of the vineyard comes, what shall he do to those farmers?'"
41 They said to Him, "Evil ones! He shall bring them to evil destruction, and lease the vineyard to other farmers who shall give to him the fruits in their seasons."
42 Ḥuṣaynu said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief corner-stone. This was from Ḥuṣaynu, and it is marvellous in our eyes'?"
43 "Because of this I say to you: the reign of Elohim shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it.

44 "And he who falls on this stone shall be broken, but on whomever it falls, he shall be pulverised."

45 And the chief kohenim and Pharisees, having heard His parables, knew that He was speaking of them.

46 And seeking to lay hands on Him, they feared the crowds, seeing they held Him to be a nabi.

22 And Ḥוושע responded and spoke to them again by parables and said,

2 "The reign of the shamayim is like a man, a sovereign, who made a wedding feast for his son,

3 and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast. But they would not come.

4 "Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Say to those who are invited, 'See, I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened cattle are slaughtered, and all is ready. Come to the wedding feast.'"

5 "But they disregarded it and went their way - this one to his field, that one to his trade.

6 "And the rest, having seized his servants, insulted and killed them.

7 "But when the sovereign heard, he was wroth, and sent out his soldiers, destroyed those murderers, and lit their city on fire.

8 "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding feast, indeed, is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

9 'Therefore go into the street corners, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding feast.'"

10 "And those servants went out into the street corners and gathered all whom they found, both wicked and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 "And when the sovereign came in to view the guests, he saw there a man who had not put on a wedding garment,

12 and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not having a wedding garment?' And he was speechless.

13 "Then the sovereign said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him out into the outer darkness - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14 "For many are called, but few are chosen."

15 Then the Pharisees went and plotted how to trap Him in His words.

16 And they sent to Him their talmidim with the Ḥerōdians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of Elohim in truth, and it does not concern You about anyone, for You are not partial to any man.

17 "Then say to us, what do You think? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18 But knowing their wickedness, Ḥוושע said, "Why do you try Me, you hypocrites?

19 "Show Me the coin of the tax." And they brought Him a silver piece.

20 And He said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?"

21 They said to Him, "Caesar's." And He said to them, "Then give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to Elohim what is Elohim's."

22 And having heard, they marvelled, and left Him and went away.

23 On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,

24 saying, "Teacher, Mosheh said that if anyone should die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise offspring for his brother.

25 "And there were with us seven brothers, and the first died after he had married, and having no children, left his wife to his brother.

26 "In the same way the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 "And last of all the woman died too.

28 "At the resurrection, then, whose wife of the seven shall she be - for all had her?"

29 And Ḥוושע answering, said to them, "You go astray, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of Elohim.

30 "For in the resurrection they do not marry, nor are they given in marriage, but are as messengers of Elohim in the shamayim.
31 "And concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by Elohim, saying,
32 'I am the Elohim of Aḇrāham, and the Elohim of Yitshaq, and the Elohim of Ya'aqoḇ?' אֱלֹהִים is not the Elohim of the dead, but of the living."
33 And when the crowds heard, they were astonished at His teaching.
34 But the Pharisees, having heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, were gathered together,
35 and one of them, one learned in the Torah, questioned, trying Him, and saying,
36 "Teacher, which is the great Command in the Torah?"
37 And יהושע said to him, " 'You shall love יהוה your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your mind.'
38 "This is the first and great Command.
39 "And the second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.'
40 "On these two Commands hang all the Torah and the Nebi'im."
41 And when the Pharisees were gathered together, יהושע asked them,
42 saying, "What do you think concerning ha'Mashiah? Whose Bĕn is He?"
43 They said to Him, "Of Da-wid."
44 "If then Dawid calls Him 'Master,' how is He his Bĕn?"
45 And no one was able to answer Him a word, and from that day on no one asked Him any more questions.

23 Then בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל spoke to the crowds and to His talmidim,
2 saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on the seat of Mosheh.
3 "Therefore, whatever he says to you to guard, guard and do. But do not do according to their works, for they say, and do not do.
4 "For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders, but with their finger they do not want to move them.
5 "And they do all their works to be seen by men, and they make their t'fillen wide and lengthen the tsitsit of their garments,
6 and they love the best place at feasts, and the best seats in the congregations,
7 and the greetings in the market-places, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'
8 "But you, do not be called 'Rabbi,' for One is your Teacher, ha'Mashiah, and you are all brothers.
9 "And call none on earth your father, for One is your Father, He who is in the shamayim.
10 "Neither be called leaders, for One is your Leader, ha'Mashiah.
11 "But the greatest among you shall be your servant.
12 "And whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.
13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the reign of the shamayim before men, for you do not go in, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.
14 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you eat up widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers. Because of this you shall receive greater judgment.
15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you go about the land and the sea to win one convert, and when he is won, you make him a son of Gehenna twofold more than yourselves.
16 "Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the Mishkan, it does not matter, but whoever swears by the gold of the Mishkan, is bound by oath.'
17 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold, or the Mishkan that makes the gold qodesh?
18 "And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it does not matter, but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, is bound by oath.'
19 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift qodesh?
20 "He, then, who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all that is upon it.
21 "And he who swears by the Mishkan, swears by it and by Him who is dwelling in it.
22 "And he who swears by the shamayim, swears by the throne of Elohim and by Him who is sitting upon it.
23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you tithe the mint and the anise and the cumin, and have neglected the weightier of the Torah: the right-ruling and the compassion and the belief. These need to have been done, without neglecting the others.
24 "Blind guides - straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel!
25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are filled with plunder and unrighteousness.
26 "Blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and dish, so that the outside of them becomes clean too.
27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you are like whitewashed tombs which outwardly indeed look well, but inside are filled with dead men's bones and all uncleanness.
28 "So you too outwardly indeed appear righteous to men, but inside you are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness.
29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the nebi'im and decorate the monuments of the righteous,
30 and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in the blood of the nebi'im.'
31 "Thus you bear witness against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the nebi'im - and you fill up the measure of your fathers!
32 "Serpents, brood of adders! How would you escape the judgment of Gehenna?
33 "Because of this, see, I send you nebi'im, and wise men, and scholars. Some of them you shall kill and impale, and some of them you shall flog in your congregations and persecute from city to city,
35 so that on you should come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Heḇel to the blood of Zekaryah, son of Berekyah, whom you murdered between the Mishkan and the altar.
36 "Truly, I say to you, all this shall come upon this generation.
37 "Yerushalayim, Yerushalayim, killing the nebi'im and stoning those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you would not!
38 "See! Your house is left to you laid waste,
39 for I say to you, from now on you shall by no means see Me, until you say, 'Baruk is He who is coming in the Name of יהוה '!
40 And going out, יהושע went away from the Miqdash, and His talmidim came near to point out to Him the buildings of the Miqdash.
2 And יהושע said to them, "Do you not see all these? Truly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, at all, which shall not be thrown down."
3 And as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the talmidim came near to point out to Him the buildings of the Miqdash.
2 And יהושע answering, said to them, "Take heed that no one leads you astray.
5 "For many shall come in My Name, saying, 'I am ha'Mashiah,' and they shall lead many astray.
6 "And you shall begin to hear of fightings and reports of fightings. See that you are not troubled, for these have to take place, but the end is not yet.
7 "For nation shall rise against nation, and reign against reign. And there shall be scarcities of food, and deadly diseases, and earthquakes in places.
8 "And all these are the beginning of birth pains.
9 "Then they shall deliver you up to affliction and kill you, and you shall be hated by all nations for My Name's sake.
10 "And then many shall stumble, and they shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another.
11 "And many false prophets shall rise up and lead many astray.
12 "And because of the increase in lawlessness, the love of many shall become cold.
13 "But he who shall have endured to the end shall be saved.
14 "And this Good News of the reign shall be proclaimed in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end shall come.
15 "So when you see the 'abomination that lays waste,' spoken of by Dani'ĕl the nabi, put up in the Miqdash" - he who reads, let him understand -
16 "then let those who are in Yahudah flee to the mountains.
17 "Let him who is on the house-top not come down to take whatever out of his house.
18 "And let him who is in the field not turn back to get his garments.
19 "And woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing children in those days!
20 "And pray that your flight does not take place in winter or on the Shabbath.
21 "For then there shall be great distress, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be.
22 "And if those days were not shortened, no flesh would be saved, but for the sake of the chosen ones those days shall be shortened.
23 "If anyone then says to you, 'Look, here is ha'Mashiah!' or 'There!' do not believe.
24 "For false messiahs and false prophets shall arise, and they shall show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.
25 "See, I have forewarned you.
26 "So if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe.
27 "For as the lightning comes from the east and shines to the west, so also shall the coming of the Bĕn of Aḏām be.
28 "For wherever the dead body is, there the vultures shall be gathered together.
29 "And immediately after the distress of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give its light, and the stars shall fall from the shamayim, and the powers of the shamayim shall be shaken.
30 "And then the sign of the Bĕn of Aḏām shall appear in the shamayim, and then all the tribes of the earth shall mourn, and they shall see the Bĕn of Aḏām coming on the clouds of the shamayim with power and much esteem.
31 "And He shall send His messengers with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the shamayim to the other.
32 "And learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that the summer is near.
33 "So you also, when you see all these, know that He is near, at the doors.
34 "Truly, I say to you, this generation shall by no means pass away until all this takes place.
35 "The shamayim and the earth shall pass away, but My Words shall by no means pass away.
36 "But concerning that day and the hour no one knows, not even the messengers of the shamayim, but My Father only.
37 "And as the days of Noah, so also shall the coming of the Bĕn of Aḏām be.
38 "For as they were in the days before the flood, eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, 39 and they did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also shall the coming of the Bĕn of Adam be. 40 "Then two shall be in the field, the one is taken and the one is left. 41 "Two shall be grinding at the mill, one is taken and one is left. 42 "Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Master is coming. 43 "And know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. 44 "Because of this, be ready too, for the Bĕn of Adam is coming at an hour when you do not expect Him. 45 "Who then is a trustworthy and wise servant, whom his master put over his household, to give them food in season? 46 "Baruk is that servant whom his master, having come, shall find so doing. 47 "Truly, I say to you that he shall put him over all his possessions. 48 "But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' 49 and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, 50 the master of that servant shall come on a day when he does not expect it, and at an hour he does not know, 51 and shall cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 "Then the reign of the shamayim shall be compared to ten maidens who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 "And five of them were wise, and five foolish. 3 "Those who were foolish, having taken their lamps, took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their containers with their lamps. 5 "Now while the bridegroom took time, they all slumbered and slept. 6 "And at midnight a cry was heard, 'See, the bridegroom is coming, go out to meet him!' 7 "Then all those maidens rose up and trimmed their lamps. 8 "And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us of your oil, because our lamps are going out.' 9 "But the wise answered, saying, 'No, indeed, there would not be enough for us and you. Instead, go to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10 "And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut. 11 "And later the other maidens also came, saying, 'Master, Master, open up for us!' 12 "But he answering, said, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.' 13 "Watch therefore, because you do not know the day nor the hour in which the Bĕn of Adam is coming, 14 for it is like a man going from home, who called his own servants and delivered his possessions to them. 15 "And to one he gave five talanton, and to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability, and went from home. 16 "And he who had received the five talanton went and worked with them, and made another five talanton. 17 "In the same way, he with the two also, he gained two more. 18 "But he who had received the one went away and dug in the ground, and hid the silver of his master. 19 "And after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. 20 "And he who had received five talanton came and brought five other talanton, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talanton. See, I have gained five more talanton besides them.' 21 "And his master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy servant.
You were trustworthy over a little, I shall put you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'

"Then he who had received two talanton came and said, 'Master, you delivered to me two talanton. See, I have gained two more talanton besides them.'

"His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy servant. You were trustworthy over a little, I shall put you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'

"Then the righteous shall answer Him, saying, 'Master, when did we see You hungry and you fed, or thirsty and gave to drink?'

"And when did we see You a stranger and took in, or naked and clothed?'

"And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and we came to You?'

"And the one who had received the one talanton also came and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed, and being afraid, I went and hid your talanton in the ground. See, you have what is yours.'

"And his master answering, said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed.

Then you should have put my silver with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest.

Therefore take away the talanton from him, and give it to him who possesses ten talanton.

For to everyone who possesses, more shall be given, and he shall have overflowingly; but from him who does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away.

'And throw the worthless servant out into the outer darkness - there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

"And when the Bĕn of Adam comes in His esteem, and all the qodesh messengers with Him, then He shall sit on the throne of His esteem.

"And all the nations shall be gathered before Him, and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats.

"And He shall put the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

"Then the Sovereign shall say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you baruk of My Father, inherit the reign prepared for you from the foundation of the world - for I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in,

was naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you visited Me, I was in prison and you came to Me.'

"Then the righteous shall answer Him, saying, 'Master, when did we see You hungry and we fed, or thirsty and gave to drink?'

"And when did we see You a stranger and took in, or naked and clothed?'

"And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and we came to You?'

"And the Sovereign shall answer and say to them, 'Truly, I say to you, in so far as you did it to one of the least of these My brothers, you did it to Me.'

"He shall then also say to those on the left hand, 'Go away from Me, accursed ones, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his messengers - for I was hungry and you gave Me no food, I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink,

I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, was naked and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'

"Then they also shall answer Him, saying, 'Master, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not serve You?'

"Then He shall answer them, saying, 'Truly, I say to you, in so far as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.'

"And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting hai.'

And it came to be, when He said to His talmidim,
Adam is to be delivered up to be impaled.

3 Then the chief kohenim, and the scribes, and the elders of the people came together at the court of the kohen ha'gadol, who was called Qayapha,

4 and plotted to seize יהושע by trickery and kill.

5 But they said, "Not at the Festival lest there be an uproar among the people."

6 And when יהושע was in Bĕyth Anyah at the house of Shim'on the leper,

7 a woman came to Him, having an alabaster flask of costly perfume, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table.

8 And when His talmidim saw it, they were much displeased saying, "To what purpose is this waste?

9 "For this perfume could have been sold for much and given to the poor."

10 However, when יהושע noticed it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work toward Me.

11 "For you always have the poor with you, but Me you do not have always.

12 "For in pouring this perfume on My body, she did it for My burial.

13 "Truly, I say to you, wherever this Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what this woman has done shall be spoken of also, to her remembrance."

14 Then one of the twelve, called Yahuḏah from Qeriyoth, went to the chief kohenim,

15 and said, "What would you give me to deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from then on he was seeking an occasion to deliver Him up.

17 And on the first of Matstsoth the talmidim came to יהושע, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Pesah?"

18 And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, 'My time is near. I am to observe the Pesah at your house with My talmidim.'"'

19 And the talmidim did as יהושע had ordered them, and prepared the Pesah.

20 And when evening came, He sat down with the twelve.

21 And while they were eating, He said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you shall deliver Me up."

22 And they were deeply grieved, and began to say to Him, each of them, "Master, is it I?"

23 And He answering, said, "He who has dipped his hand with Me in the dish, he shall deliver Me up.

24 "Indeed, the Bĕn of ሌDebeš goes as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man by whom the Bĕn of ሌDebeš is delivered up! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25 And Yahuḏah - he who delivered Him up - answering, said, "Rabbi, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said it."

26 And as they were eating, יהושע took bread, and having barak, broke and gave it to the talmidim and said, "Take, eat, this is My body."

27 And taking the cup, and giving thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you.

28 "For this is My blood, that of the Renewed Covenant, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins.

29 "But I say to you, I shall certainly not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on till that day when I drink it anew with you in the reign of My Father."

30 And having sung a song, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31 Then יהושע said to them, "All of you shall stumble in Me this night, for it has been written, 'I shall strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered.'

32 "But after I have been raised, I shall go before you into Galil."

33 And Kĕpha answering, said to Him, "Even if all stumble in You, I shall never stumble."

34 יהושע said to him, "Truly, I say to you that this night, before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times."

35 Kĕpha said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I shall not deny You!"
All the talmidim said the same too.
36 Then Ḥūw v came with them to a place called Gath Shemen, and said to the talmidim, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."
37 And He took with Him Kĕpha and the two sons of Zaḇdai, and He began to be grieved and deeply distressed.
38 Then He said to them, "My being is exceedingly grieved, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me."
39 And going forward a little, He fell on His face, and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I desire, but as You."
40 And He came to the talmidim and found them asleep, and said to Kĕpha, "So, were you not able to watch with Me one hour?
41 "Watch and pray, lest you enter into trial. The spirit indeed is eager, but the flesh is weak."
42 Again He went away, a second time, and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is impossible for this to pass unless I drink it, let Your desire be done."
43 And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.
44 And He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then He came to His talmidim and found them asleep, and said to Kĕpha, "So, were you not able to watch with Me one hour?
46 "Watch and pray, lest you enter into trial. The spirit indeed is eager, but the flesh is weak."
42 Again He went away, a second time, and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is impossible for this to pass unless I drink it, let Your desire be done."
43 And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.
44 And He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then He came to His talmidim and found them asleep, and said to them, "Still sleeping and taking rest? See, the hour has come near, and the Bĕn of Adam is delivered up into the hands of sinners.
46 "Rise, let us go. See, he who delivers Me up has come near:"
47 And while He was still speaking, see, Yahuḏah, one of the twelve, with a large crowd with swords and clubs, came from the chief kohenim and elders of the people.
48 And he who was delivering Him up gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, it is He, seize Him."
49 And going straight up to Ḥūw v he said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.
50 And Ḥūw v said to him, "Friend, why have you come?" Then they came and laid hands on Ḥūw v and seized Him.
51 And look, one of those with Ḥūw v put out his hand and drew his sword, and striking the servant of the kohen ha'gadol he cut off his ear.
52 Then Ḥūw v said to him, "Return your sword to its place, for all who take the sword shall die by the sword.
53 "Or do you think that I am not able to pray to My Father now, and He shall provide Me with more than twelve legions of messengers?
54 "How then would the Scriptures be filled that it has to be this way?"
55 In that hour Ḥūw v said to the crowds, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to arrest Me? Daily I sat with you, teaching in the Miqdash, and you did not seize Me.
56 "But all this came to be, so that the Scriptures of the Neḇi'im might be filled." Then all the talmidim left Him and fled.
57 And those who had seized Ḥūw v led Him away to Qayapha the kohen ha'gadol, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.
58 But Kĕpha followed Him at a distance to the courtyard of the kohen ha'gadol, and he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.
59 And the chief kohenim, and the elders, and all the council were seeking false witness against Ḥūw v to put Him to death,
60 but found none. Although many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward,
61 and said, "This one said, I am able to destroy the Mishkan of Elohim and to build it in three days.' "
62 And the kohen ha'gadol stood up and said to Him, "Have You no answer to make? What do these witness against You?"
63 But Ḥūw v remained silent. So the kohen ha'gadol said to Him, "I put You to oath, by the living Elohim that You say to us if You are ha'Mashiah, the Bĕn of Ḥoḇa'am."
64 Ḥūw v said to him, "You have said it. Besides I say to you, from now you shall see the Bĕn of Aḏām sitting at the right hand of the Almighty, and coming on the clouds of the shamayim."
65 Then the kohen ha'gadol tore his garments, saying, "He has blasphemed! Why do we need any more witnesses? See, now you have heard His blasphemy!
66 "What do you think?" And they answering, said, "He is liable to death."
67 Then they spat in His face and beat Him, and others slapped Him,
68 saying, "Naḇa to us, Mashiaḥ! Who is the one who struck You?"
69 And Kĕpha sat outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him, saying, "And you were with יהושע of Galil."
70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you say."
71 And as he was going out into the porch, another girl saw him and said to those there, "And this one was with יהושע of Natsareth."
72 But again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man!"
73 And after a while those who stood by came to him and said to Kĕpha, "Truly you are one of them too, for even your speech gives you away."
74 Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!" And immediately a cock crowed.
75 And Kĕpha remembered the word of יהושע who had said to him, "Before a cock crows, you shall deny Me three times." And going out, he wept bitterly.
76 And morning having come, all the chief kohenim and elders of the people took counsel against יהושע, so as to put Him to death.
77 And having bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilatus the governor.
78 Then Yahudah - he who delivered Him up - having seen that He had been condemned, repented, returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief kohenim and to the elders,
79 saying, "I have sinned in delivering up innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? You see to it!"
80 And throwing down the pieces of silver in the Mishkan he left, and went and hanged himself.
81 And the chief kohenim took the silver pieces and said, "It is not right to put them into the treasury, seeing they are the price of blood."
82 So they took counsel and bought with them the potter's field, for the burial of strangers.
83 Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood, until today.
84 Then was filled what was spoken by Yirmeyahu the naḇi, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was pierced, on whom they of the children of Yisra'ĕl put a price,
85 and gave them for the potter's field, as יהוה had ordered me."
86 And יהושע stood before the governor, and the governor asked Him, saying, "Are You the Sovereign of the Yahuḏim?" And יהושע said to him, "You say it."
87 And as He was accused by the chief kohenim and the elders, He answered not.
88 Then Pilatus said to Him, "Do You not hear how much they witness against You?"
89 And He did not answer him, not one word, so that the governor wondered much.
90 And at the Festival the governor used to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they wanted.
91 And they had then a well-known prisoner called Barabba.
92 So when they were assembled, Pilatus said to them, "Whom do you want that I release to you? Barabba, or יהושע who is called Mashiaḥ?"
93 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered Him up.
94 And as he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have naught to do with that righteous Man, for I have suffered much today in a dream because of Him."
95 But the chief kohenim and elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Barabba and to destroy יוחנן.
21 And the governor answering, said to them, "Which of the two do you want that I release to you?" They said, "Barabba!"
22 Pilatus said to them, "What then shall I do with יוחנן who is called Messiah?" They all said to him, "Let Him be impaled!"
23 And the governor said, "Indeed, what evil has He done?" And they were crying out all the more, saying, "Let Him be impaled!"
24 And when Pilatus saw that he was getting nowhere, but rather an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this Righteous One. You shall see to it."
25 And all the people answering, said, "His blood be on us and on our children."
26 Then he released Barabba to them, but having יוחנן whipped, he delivered Him over to be impaled.
27 Then the soldiers of the governor took יוחנן into the court and gathered the entire squad around Him.
28 And having stripped Him, they put a scarlet robe on Him.
29 And plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they kneeled down before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Greetings, Sovereign of the Yahudim!"
30 And spitting on Him they took the reed and struck Him on the head.
31 And as they were going out, they found a man of קירĕnĕ, Shim'on by name - they compelled him to bear His stake.
32 And when they came to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull,
33 they gave Him wine mixed with bile to drink. And after tasting, He would not drink it.
34 And having impaled Him, they divided His garments, casting lots, that it might be filled what was spoken by the nabi, "They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots."
35 And sitting down, they guarded Him there.
36 And they put up over His head the written charge against Him: THIS IS יוחנן, THE SOVEREIGN OF THE YAHUĐIM.
37 Then two robbers were impaled with Him, one on the right and another on the left.
38 And those passing by were blaspheming Him, shaking their heads, saying, "You who destroy the Mishkan and build it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Bĕn of Elohim, come down from the stake."
39 And likewise the chief kohenim, with the scribes and elders, mocking, said, "He saved others - He is unable to save Himself. If He is the Sovereign of Yisra'ĕl, let Him now come down from the stake, and we shall believe Him.
40 "He trusted in Elohim, let Him rescue Him now if He desires Him, for He said, 'I am the Bĕn of Elohim.'"
41 And also the robbers who were impaled with Him, reviled Him the same.
42 And from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land, until the ninth hour.
43 And about the ninth hour יוחנן cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Ĕli, Ėli, lamah shebaqtani?" that is, "My Ĕl, My Ĕl, why have You forsaken Me?"
44 Some of those standing there, having heard, said, "This One calls Eliyahu!"
45 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar and put it on a reed, and gave it to Him to drink.
46 And and crying out again with a loud voice, and gave up His spirit.
47 And see, the veil of the Mishkan was torn in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were 52 and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the qodeshim who had fallen asleep were raised,
53 and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the qodesh city and appeared to many.
54 And when the captain and those with him, who were guarding יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה, saw the earthquake and all that took place, they feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this was the בֵּן of Elohim!"
55 And many women who followed יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה from Galil, attending Him, were there, watching from a distance,
56 among whom were Miryam from Maḏdala, and Miryam the mother of Ya’aqob and Yosĕph, and the mother of Zabdai’s sons.
57 And when evening came, there came a rich man from Ramathayim, named Yosĕph, who himself had also become a talmid of יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה.
58 He went to Pilatus and asked for the body of יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה. Then Pilatus commanded the body to be given.
59 And having taken the body, Yosĕph wrapped it in clean linen,
60 and laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock. And he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and went away.
61 And Miryam from Maḏdala was there, and the other Miryam, sitting opposite the tomb.
62 On the next day, which was after the preparation, the chief kohenim and Pharisees gathered together to Pilatus,
63 saying, "Master, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, 'After three days I am raised.'
64 'Command, then, that the tomb be safeguarded until the third day, lest His talmidim come by night and steal Him away, and should say to the people, 'He was raised from the dead.' And the last deception shall be worse than the first.'"
65 So Pilatus said to them, "You have a watch, go, safeguard it as you know how."
66 And they went and safeguarded the tomb, sealing the stone after posting sentries.

28 Now after the Shabbath, toward dawn on one of the shabbathoth, Miryam from Maḏdala and the other Miryam came to see the tomb.
2 And see, there was a great earthquake, for a messenger of יִהוָה came down out of the shamayim, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat on it.
3 And his appearance was like lightning, and his garments as white as snow.
4 And the guards trembled for fear of him, and became like dead men.
5 And the messenger responding, said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה who was impaled.
6 "He is not here, for He was raised, as He said. Come, see the place where the Master lay.
7 "And go quickly, say to His talmidim that He was raised from the dead, and see, He is going before you to Galil. There you shall see Him. See, I have told you."
8 And they left the tomb quickly, with fear and great joy, and ran to report to His talmidim.
9 And as they were going to report to His talmidim, see, יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה met them, saying, "Greetings!" And they came and held Him by the feet and bowed to Him.
10 Then יִהוּדֵי יֵהוָה said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go, report to My brothers, to go to Galil, and they shall see Me there."
11 And while they were going, see, some of the sentries having gone into the city, reported to the chief kohenim all that took place.
12 And when they came together with the elders and taken counsel, they gave enough silver to the soldiers,
13 saying, "Say that His talmidim came at night and stole Him away while we slept.
14 "And if this should be reported to the governor, we shall win him over and keep you out of trouble."
15 And having taken the silver they did as they were instructed. And this account was widely spread among the Yahudim, to this day.

16 And the eleven talmidim went away into Galil, to the mountain which יהושע had appointed for them.

17 And when they saw Him, they bowed to Him, but some doubted.

18 And יהושע came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in the shamayim and on earth.

19 "Therefore, go and make talmidim of all the nations, immersing them in the Name of the Father and of the Bĕn and of the Ruah ha'Qodesh, 20 teaching them to guard all that I have commanded you. And see, I am with you always, until the end of the age." Amĕn.
